From your Church Library

The Melville Church Library receives "new to us" book donations on a regular basis. We appreciate receiving current and appropriate donations of fiction and non-fiction works. New books or themed books are often displayed on the library table, and you are encouraged to take any of these books. Any time you borrow a book, simply fill in the date and your name on the card in the book (usually located in the front of the book, sometimes in the back.) If the item has no card, then there is a sign-out booklet, where you can write the date, the title and your name.

We have a large number of children's books and family books, as well as the adult selections. Please do visit your library, browse the shelves, borrow some great reading, or simply enjoy a quiet time reading. If you leading a church meeting, our "Inspiration" and "Prayer and Devotion" sections are sure to have something to meet your needs. And don't forget, if you enjoy discussing the books you have read, anyone is welcome to borrow a book club book and be part of our discussions (or just read the book for your own enjoyment.)

You are invited to visit the library anytime you are in the church.
