"KIDS" ...Come out to Kid's Church on January 25 to receive your Melville United Calendar for 2015. Martha Duncan will prepare a special Christian calendar..we will add upcoming church events for 2015 for you and your family...then you will take your calendar home to colour and decorate.

Spirituality Circle at 10:00 a.m. on Mon Jan. 26 in the parlour.

The monthly meeting of the Units Faith & Grace will take place in the parlour on Tues. Jan. 27th at 2 p.m. The Rev. Marion Loree will be speaking with us - all women of the church are welcome!

Melville Secret Pen Pals. It's back! And we need people of all ages to sign-up! Our Secret Pen Pal program pairs children and youth with older members of the congregation to exchange letters, drawings, and other knick-knacks. Can you guess who you have been paired with? Exchanges will run Jan. 25th-Mar.8th. Letter boxes will be in the parlour. Please plan to come and meet your SPP in person at our luncheon on March 8th.

Welcome to Melville. With the growing use of our building, Council would like volunteers to act as a host to the various groups coming into our church. On the job training will be provided. If you are interested or would like more information, please see Mary Lloyd or Ralph Rainford. Thank you.

Observer subscriptions are now due. Please consider renewing your subscription again. New subscriptions are available. The cost is $20.00 for a very informative magazine. I will be outside the chapel after worship to assist. Thank you. Ralph Rainford Shrove Tuesday is coming! Mark your calendar for Tuesday, February 17th and plan to join us.

Irreplaceable - a Documentary. What is family? Does it still matter in today's society? Tim Sisarich travels the world to find out. Documentary Film Screening at St. Andrew's Presbyterian on Friday, Jan. 30 at 7 p.m.

Committee Reports need to be in the office by Jan. 25 at the latest or they will have to be added on to the printed Annual Report by the committee themselves.
