Also he has permitted us knowledge beyond our wisdom, and granted us, in our unripeness, the power to destroy the earth,

I praise his fathomless mercy and thank him for his difficult grace.

All beings perform his covenant and act out his primal law:
that whatever we reap, we have sown, and what we give, we receive.

Amen.

Words of Affirmation: (Psalm 111, adapted by Stephen Mitchell, cont)

To know these truths is the beginning of wisdom; to live by them is the path of true life.

Thanks be to God.

Readings: 1 Kings 3:3-14 (The Voice)

3 Solomon's heart belonged to the Eternal. Solomon abided by the same laws as his father, David. The only difference was that Solomon offered sacrifices and incense at the high places.

4 Solomon went to Gibeon-the great high place-and presented 1,000 burnt offerings at the altar.

5 The Eternal revealed Himself to Solomon in a dream while he was still in Gibeon.

Eternal One: Tell me, what is your request of Me?

Solomon:

6 You have already revealed Your loyal love to my father, David, for he lived by Your truth and righteousness and honor during the days of his life. You have continued to show this loyal love to him by giving him a son who now reigns upon his throne.

7 Eternal One, my God, You have allowed me to serve as my father David served, but I am still young and inexperienced. I don't know much about anything,

8 yet I am supposed to lead Your chosen people who are innumerable and even uncountable.

9 Please give Your servant a listening heart for judging Your people and for knowing the difference between what is good and what is evil. Who is capable of judging Your chosen ones, a great people?

10 God was delighted by Solomon's request.

Eternal One:

11 Since you have asked for wisdom and not for an extended lifetime or for personal wealth or for the annihilation of your enemies, since you have instead asked for the ability to understand justice,

12 I will honor your request. I have planted the deepest human wisdom into your heart. There has never been nor will there ever be a man like you.

13 I have also given you the things for which you have not asked-wealth and an honorable reputation. There will be no other kings like you for as long as you live.

14 If you live a life devoted to Me, if you remain loyal to My laws and commands just as your father David did, then I will add days to your life.

 Know God will guide you in all you do.
 Go now in love, and show you believe.
 Reach out to others so all the world can see.
 God will be there, around, within, above.
 Go now in peace, in faith, and in love.
 Amen. Amen. Amen.
