Opening Prayer:

Loving God, Holy Presence, no matter what we call you, you are still God. We know that any and all of our names for you are limited by our simple knowledge and understanding. But this we do know - you are always and everywhere. We cannot be separated from your Spirit of love and life. May we experience and celebrate that presence ever anew in this time of worship. Amen.

Prayer for Inner Healing:

Sometimes we come, O God, with a long list of requests, and expect you to do exactly as we ask.

Forgive us, O God, as we forgive those who hurt us.

Sometimes we get discouraged when you do not fulfill our wishes exactly as we want.

Forgive us, O God, as we forgive those who hurt us.

Sometimes we think that our way is the only way, and you, O God, must follow our lead.

Forgive us, O God, as we forgive those who hurt us.

Now, in this time, we humbly confess that we seldom - if ever - know exactly what's best, or exactly what's right.

Help us to pray as Jesus taught us, asking only for your will to be done.

Forgive us, O God,

as we forgive those who hurt us. Amen.

Words of Assurance:

Jesus reminds us that God is greater and kinder than anything we can imagine. Know that, when you earnestly seek Spirit's presence, you will find that God is always near you.

Let us begin again. Let us give thanks for God's gracious, loving presence! Amen.

Chorus: Dance with the Spirit MV 156

Dance with the Spirit early in the mornin', walk with the Spirit throughout the long day.
Work and hope for the new life a-bornin',
listen to the Spirit to show you the way. (repeat)

Scripture: Colossians 2:6-15 (The Message)

(From shadow to substance)

My counsel for you is simple and straightforward: just go ahead with what you've been given. You received Christ Jesus, the Master; now live him. You're deeply rooted in him. You're well constructed upon him. You know your way around the faith. Now do what you've been taught. School's out; quit studying the subject and start living it! And let your living spill over into thanksgiving.

Watch out for people who try to dazzle you with big words and intellectual double-talk. They want to drag you off into endless arguments that never amount to anything. They spread their ideas through the empty traditions of human beings and the empty superstitions of spirit beings. But that's not the way of Christ. Everything of God gets expressed in him, so you can see and hear him clearly. You don't need a telescope, a microscope, or a horoscope to realize the fullness of Christ, and the emptiness of the universe without him. When you come to him, that fullness comes together for you, too. His power extends over everything.

Entering into this fullness is not something you figure out or achieve. It's not a matter of being circumcised or keeping a long list of laws. No, you're already in - insiders - not through some secretive initiation rite but rather through what Christ has already gone through for you, destroying the power of sin. If it's in initiation ritual you're after, you've already been through it by submitting to baptism. Going under the water was a burial of your old life; coming up out of it was a resurrection, God raising you from the dead as Christ was raised.

When you were stuck in your old sin-dead life, you were incapable of responding to God. God brought you alive - right along with Christ! Think of it! All sins forgiven, the slate wiped clean, that old arrest warrant cancelled and nailed to the cross. All the spiritual tyrants in the universe were stripped of their sham authority at the cross and marched naked through the streets.

Responsive Reading: (from Prayers to Share by David Sparks)

Like a good friend you are there for us, O God, making us laugh, celebrating the moment.

You encourage us to enjoy life to the fullest.

Like a good friend, you are there for us, O God,
knowing us so well, utterly to be trusted.

You encourage us to deepen friendship.

Like a good friend, you are there for us, O God,
listening so carefully, yet slow to judge.

You encourage us to listen with empathy.

Like a good friend, you are there for us, O God,
ready to point out our talents, before our shortcomings.

You encourage us to look for the best in others.

Like a good friend, you are there for us, O God,
challenging us to share our gifts with others.

You encourage us to participate in community.

Hymn: Come to My Heart Lord Jesus

VU 661

Scripture: Luke 11:1-13 (New Revised Standard Version)

(Jesus teaches the disciples to pray)

He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say:

Father, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

Give us each day our daily bread.

And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us.

And do not bring us to the time of trial."

And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him. And he answers from within, Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.' I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

"So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will God in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask!"
