- Mid-Day Music at Melville. While the regular Wednesday performances this season have focussed on music from the movies over the past century, for the next two weeks, we will set that theme aside and have a seasonal look at some wonderful Christmas music. The next performance on December 11 will feature a wide variety Christmas selections, both carols and popular songs from a wide range of eras, from traditional noels to some selections to which you might be introduced for the first time. Another Christmas tradition is the open invitation to sing along (with lyric sheets provided) for familiar pieces such as God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen, Good King Wenceslas, Away in a Manger, White Christmas and many more. Brad will also provide details of the origins of this music, and how it came to such an important part of our Christmas traditions. The true spirit of Christmas is found in its music, and we hope this event will create a real Christmas spirit in you. After our second week of Christmas music on December 18, the series will take two weeks off for Christmas and New Year's and will return to our "movie music" theme on Wednesday, January 8, 2025.
