- Canadian Bible Society Daily Reading Guides are available at the back of the Sanctuary or by the lift.
- The music concert series Mid-Day Music at Melville returns to Melville Wednesday, January 8, 2025, from 12 noon until about 1 p.m. Brad will feature selections from movies released in 1942 and 1943. The times marked some of the darkest days of World War II, and the music reflects the peak of the “Big Band Era”, and the songs that soothed the emotions of a war weary world and helped boost the home-front morale. Come and enjoy songs by some of the great composers and lyricists of the past century including Jerome Kern, Harold Arlen, Johnny Mercer, Cole Porter, Harry Warren and others – songs such as “I’m Old Fashioned”, “You’ll Never Know”, “That Old Black Magic”, One for My Baby (and One More for the Road)”, and likely the most famous song to emerge from a movie that was not in fact written for the movie at all. This is a Freewill event.
- Stay Strong, Live Long! Start the New Year with confidence by joining VON’s Falls Prevention Series! There are 12 sessions packed with practical strategies to: Reduce your risk of falling, minimize injury if a fall does occur, promote faster recovery. Our focus is to help you stay healthy, active, and independent—living happily to your last day! Did you know? Frailty isn’t inevitable. You can go from frail to fit at any age, and we’ll show you how! Attend one or all of the sessions. Free to attend and no registration required. Mondays starting Jan. 6th, 1:00pm (no session Feb 17 & Mar 17) in Melville’s Fellowship Hall. See flyer posted on the bulletin board outside the Parlour for more information.
