- Garage, Bake & Plant Sale: We are now accepting Garage Sale donations in the Chapel and the Heritage Hall!!! Please also consider potting some plants and preparing some Baking. The sale is running through the month of May Fridays & Saturdays, 8am-4pm. Thank You! Your F, F & F Committee
- Subscriptions are now due. If you are renewing your subscription to the Broadview magazine, it is now due. The cost remains at $30.00. Please see Ralph Rainford ASAP to settle your account. If you do not subscribe to Broadview but would like a subscription or have questions, please talk to Ralph. Thank you for your support.
- Fill up CW FoodBank! This critical organization is the front line when life gets difficult. Let's show Melville's love and support by contributing lots of items from the Most Needed List (available in the Sanctuary). Or through financial donations which allow the purchase of meat and perishable items. Special giving envelopes are available in the Sanctuary, or write Food Bank on any of the envelopes. Or use E-transfer to secretary@melvilleunited.com. Please be sure to mention it's for the FoodBank!
- The final concert in the 2024-2025 season of "Mid-Day Music at Melville" will be presented at Melville United Church in Fergus on Wednesday, May 7 beginning at 12 noon. Join pianist and singer Brad Halls as he completes his tour through a century of wonderful music from the movies with some of his favourite film music from the past several decades including compositions by Michel Legrand, John Williams, Ennio Morricone, Elton John and more. The program will include selection from great movies from "On Golden Pond". "Yentl", "Cinema Paradiso", "I'll Postino". "Out of Africa" and many more. As always there is no admission charge for the concert but a voluntary contribution to Melville Church is always appreciated.
